- (5) The Company is under no obligation to refund any partial consideration received by the Company to the Shareholder whose Shares have been cancelled pursuant to subsection (4) and that Shareholder shall be discharged from any further obligation to the Company.

11. Pre-emption Rights on Transfer

- (1) No Shareholder may transfer, assign or otherwise dispose of any interest in a Share or create a trust or Encumbrance over that Share without first complying with this Article.
- (2) A Shareholder (the “Seller”) wishing to transfer, assign or otherwise dispose of any of his Shares (the “Sale Shares”) must give notice in writing (a “Transfer Notice”) to the Company giving details of the proposed transfer including:
 - (a) the number of Sale Shares;
 - (b) the name of the proposed buyer;
 - (c) the price (which must be in cash) at which he wishes to sell the Sale Shares (the “Transfer Price”); and

- (d) whether the Transfer Notice is conditional on all, or a specific number of, the Sale Shares being sold to Shareholders (the "Minimum Transfer Condition").
- (3) Once given under these Articles, a Transfer Notice may not be withdrawn by the Seller without the consent of the other Shareholders.
- (4) A Transfer Notice constitutes the Company the agent of the Seller for the sale of the Sale Shares in accordance with the provisions of these Articles.
- (5) As soon as practicable following the receipt of a Transfer Notice, the board shall offer the Sale Shares for sale in the manner set out in the remaining provisions of this Article at the Transfer Price. Each offer shall be in writing and give details of the number and Transfer Price of the Sale Shares offered.
- (6) The board shall offer the Sale Shares to all Shareholders other than the Seller (the "Continuing Shareholders"), inviting them to apply in writing within the period from the date of the offer to the date 28 days after the offer (both dates inclusive) (the "Offer Period") for the maximum number of Sale Shares they wish to buy at the Transfer Price.
- (7) If the Sale Shares are subject to a Minimum Transfer Condition, any allocation made under Article 11(8) shall be conditional on the fulfilment of the Minimum Transfer Condition.
- (8) If:
- (a) at the end of the Offer Period, the total number of Sale Shares applied for is equal to or exceeds the number of Sale Shares, the board shall allocate the Sale Shares to each Continuing Shareholder who has applied for Sale Shares in the proportion which the Continuing Shareholder's existing holding of shares bears to the total number of shares held by those Continuing Shareholders who have applied for Sale Shares. No allocation shall be made to a Continuing Shareholder of more than the maximum number of Sale Shares which he has stated he is willing to buy,
- (b) not all Sale Shares are allocated following allocations in accordance with Article 11(8)(a), but there are applications for Sale Shares that have not been satisfied, the board shall allocate the remaining Sale Shares to such applicant(s) in accordance with the procedure set out in Article 11(8)(a). The procedure set out in this Article 11(8)(b) shall apply on any number of consecutive occasions until either all Sale Shares have been allocated or all applications for Sale Shares have been satisfied; and
- (c) at the end of the Offer Period, the total number of Sale Shares applied for is less than the number of Sale Shares, the board shall allocate the Sale Shares to the Continuing Shareholders in accordance with their applications.
- (9) If the Transfer Notice includes a Minimum Transfer Condition and the total number of Sale Shares applied for is less than the number of Sale Shares specified in the Minimum Transfer Condition, the board shall notify the Seller and all those to whom Sale Shares have been conditionally allocated under Article 11(8) stating that the Minimum Transfer Condition has not been met and the relevant Transfer Notice has lapsed with immediate effect.
- (10) If:
- (a) the Transfer Notice includes a Minimum Transfer Condition and such Minimum Transfer Condition has been satisfied, or the Transfer Notice does not include a Minimum Transfer Condition; and

- (b) allocations under Article 11(8) have been made in respect of some or all of the Sale Shares, the board shall give written notice of allocation (an "Allocation Notice") to the Seller and each Continuing Shareholder to whom Sale Shares have been allocated (each an "Applicant"). The Allocation Notice shall specify the number of Sale Shares allocated to each Applicant, the amount payable by each Applicant for the number of Sale Shares allocated to him (the "Consideration") and the place and time for completion of the transfer of the Sale Shares (which shall be at least five days, but not more than ten days, after the date of the Allocation Notice).

- (11) On the date specified for completion in the Allocation Notice, the Seller shall, against payment of the Consideration, execute and deliver a transfer of the Sale Shares allocated to each Applicant, in accordance with the requirements specified in the Allocation Notice.

- (12) If the Seller fails to comply with Article 11(11):

- (a) the Chairman of the Company (or, failing him, one of the other directors, or some other person nominated by a resolution of the board) may, as agent on behalf of the Seller:

- (i) complete, execute and deliver in his name all documents necessary to give effect to the transfer of the relevant Sale Shares to the Applicants;
- (ii) receive the Consideration and give a good discharge for it (and no Applicant shall be obliged to see to the distribution of the Consideration); and
- (iii) enter the Applicants in the register of members as the holders of the Sale Shares purchased by them; and

- (b) the Company shall pay the Consideration into a separate bank account in the Company's name on trust (but without interest) for the Seller until he has delivered his certificate(s) for the relevant Sale Shares or an indemnity, in a form reasonably satisfactory to the board, in respect of any lost certificate, together, in either case, with such other evidence (if any) as the board may reasonably require to prove good title to those Sale Shares, to the Company.

- (13) If:

- (a) an Allocation Notice does not relate to all of the Sale Shares then within 60 days following service of the Allocation Notice the Seller may transfer those Sale Shares not allocated pursuant to the Allocation Notice; or
- (b) a Transfer Notice lapses pursuant to Article 11(9) then within 60 days following the date of the lapse of the Transfer Notice the Seller may (subject to the Minimum Transfer Condition) transfer the Sale Shares, to any person at a price at least equal to the Transfer Price.

- (14) The restrictions imposed by this Article:

- (a) may be waived in relation to any proposed transfer of Sale Shares with the consent of Shareholders who, but for the waiver, would or might have been entitled to have such Sale Shares offered to them in accordance with this Article; and
- (b) do not apply to a transfer of shares to the Company.

12. Method of Transfer of Shares

- (1) Subject to Article 11, Shares may be transferred by an instrument of transfer containing the name and address of the transferee signed by the transferor and the transferee and each other member of the Company, which shall be sent to the Company at the office of its registered agent within 30 days of signing.
- (2) The transfer of a Share is effective when the name of the transferee is entered on the register of members.
- (3) If the directors of the Company are satisfied that an instrument of transfer has been signed but that the instrument has been lost or destroyed, they may resolve by Resolution of Directors—
 - (a) to accept such evidence of the transfer of Shares as they consider appropriate; and
 - (b) that the transferee's name should be entered in the register of members notwithstanding the absence of the instrument of transfer.
- (4) Subject to the Memorandum and in accordance with the requirements of the Regulations, the personal representative, executor or administrator of a deceased Shareholder may transfer a Share even though such personal representative, executor or administrator is not a Shareholder at the time of the transfer.

13. Meetings and Consents of Shareholders

- (1) Any director of the Company may convene meetings of the Shareholders at such times and in such manner and places within or outside the Zone as the director considers necessary or desirable.
- (2) Upon the written request of Shareholders entitled to exercise 30% or more of the voting rights in respect of the matter for which the meeting is requested the director or directors so requested shall convene a meeting of Shareholders.
- (3) The director or directors convening a meeting shall give not less than seven days' notice of a meeting of Shareholders to—
 - (a) those Shareholders whose names on the date the notice is given appear as Shareholders in the register of members of the Company and are entitled to vote at the meeting; and
 - (b) the other directors.
- (4) The convener or conveners of a meeting of members may specify in the notice convening such meeting a date, being not earlier than 30 days before the proposed date of such meeting, as the record date for determining those members that are entitled to vote at the meeting.
- (5) A meeting of Shareholders held in contravention of the requirement to give notice is valid if Shareholders holding at least 90% of the total voting rights on all the matters to be considered at the meeting have waived notice of the meeting and, for this purpose, the presence of a Shareholder at the meeting shall constitute waiver in relation to all the Shares which that Shareholder holds unless his presence at the meeting is to protest the lack of notice given in respect of such meeting.
- (6) The inadvertent failure of the director or directors who convenes a meeting to give notice of a meeting to a Shareholder or other directors, or the fact that a Shareholder or another director has not received notice, does not invalidate the meeting.

- (7) A Shareholder may be represented at a meeting of Shareholders by a proxy who may speak and vote on behalf of the Shareholder.
- (8) The instrument appointing a proxy shall be produced at the place designated for the meeting before the time for holding the meeting at which the person named in such instrument proposes to vote. The notice of the meeting may specify an alternative or additional place or time at which the proxy shall be presented.
- (9) The instrument appointing a proxy shall be in substantially the following form or such other form as the chairman of the meeting shall accept as properly evidencing the wishes of the Shareholder appointing the proxy.

[NAME OF COMPANY]

[I/We] being a Shareholder of the above Company HEREBY APPOINT [●] of [●] or failing him [●] of [●] to be my/our proxy to vote for [me/us] at the meeting of Shareholders to be held on the [●] day of [●], 20 [●] and at any adjournment thereof.

(Any restrictions on voting to be inserted here.)

Shareholder]

- (10) The following applies where Shares are jointly owned—
 - (a) if two or more persons hold Shares jointly each of them may be present in person or by proxy at a meeting of Shareholders and may speak as a Shareholder;
 - (b) if only one of the joint owners is present in person or by proxy he may vote on behalf of all joint owners; and
 - (c) if two or more of the joint owners are present in person or by proxy they must vote as one.
- (11) A Shareholder shall be deemed to be present at a meeting of Shareholders if he participates by telephone or other electronic means and all Shareholders participating in the meeting are able to hear each other.
- (12) A meeting of Shareholders is duly constituted if, at the commencement of the meeting, there are present in person or by proxy not less than 50% of the votes of the Shares or class or series of Shares entitled to vote on Resolutions of Shareholders to be considered at the meeting. A quorum may comprise a single Shareholder or proxy and then such person may pass a Resolution of Shareholders and a certificate signed by such person accompanied where such person be a proxy by a copy of the proxy instrument shall constitute a valid Resolution of Shareholders.
- (13) If within two hours from the time appointed for the meeting a quorum is not present, the meeting, if convened upon the requisition of Shareholders, shall be dissolved; in any other case it shall stand adjourned to the next business day in the jurisdiction in which the meeting was to have been held at the same time and place or to such other time and place as the directors may determine, and if at the adjourned meeting there are present within one hour from the time appointed for the meeting in person or by proxy not less than one-third of the votes of the Shares or each class or series of Shares entitled to vote on the matters to be considered by the meeting, those present shall constitute a quorum but otherwise the meeting shall be dissolved.

- (14) At every meeting of Shareholders, the Chairman shall preside as chairman of the meeting. If there is no Chairman or if the Chairman is not present at the meeting, the Shareholders present shall choose one of their number to be the chairman of the meeting. If the Shareholders are unable to choose a chairman of the meeting for any reason, then the person representing the greatest number of voting Shares present in person or by proxy at the meeting shall preside as chairman of the meeting failing which the oldest individual Shareholder or representative of a Shareholder present shall take the chair of the meeting.
- (15) The chairman of the meeting may, with the consent of the meeting, adjourn any meeting from time to time, and from place to place, but no business shall be transacted at any adjourned meeting other than the business left unfinished at the meeting from which the adjournment took place.
- (16) At any meeting of the Shareholders the chairman of the meeting is responsible for deciding in such manner as he considers appropriate whether any resolution proposed has been carried or not and the result of his decision shall be announced to the meeting and recorded in the minutes of the meeting. If the chairman of the meeting has any doubt as to the outcome of the vote on a proposed resolution, he shall cause a poll to be taken of all votes cast upon such resolution. If the chairman of the meeting fails to take a poll then any Shareholder present in person or by proxy who disputes the announcement by the chairman of the meeting of the result of any vote may immediately following such announcement demand that a poll be taken and the chairman of the meeting shall cause a poll to be taken. If a poll is taken at any meeting, the result shall be announced to the meeting and recorded in the minutes of the meeting.
- (17) Subject to the specific provisions contained in this Article for the appointment of representatives of persons other than individuals, the right of any individual to speak for or represent a Shareholder shall be determined by the law of the jurisdiction where, and by the documents by which, the person is constituted or derives its existence. In case of doubt, the directors may in good faith seek legal advice from any qualified person and unless and until a court of competent jurisdiction shall otherwise rule, the directors may rely and act upon such advice without incurring any liability to any Shareholder or the Company.
- (18) Any person other than an individual which is a Shareholder may by resolution of its directors or other governing body authorise such individual as it thinks fit to act as its representative at any meeting of Shareholders or of any class of Shareholders, and the individual so authorised shall be entitled to exercise the same rights on behalf of the person which he represents as that person could exercise if it were an individual.
- (19) The chairman of any meeting at which a vote is cast by proxy or on behalf of any person other than an individual may call for a notarially certified copy of such proxy or authority which shall be produced within seven days of being so requested or the votes cast by such proxy or on behalf of such person shall be disregarded.
- (20) Directors of the Company may attend and speak at any meeting of Shareholders and at any separate meeting of the holders of any class or series of Shares.
- (21) An action that may be taken by the Shareholders at a meeting may also be taken by a Resolution of Shareholders consented to in writing, without the need for any notice, but if any Resolution of Shareholders is adopted otherwise than by the unanimous written consent of all Shareholders, a copy of such resolution shall forthwith be sent to all Shareholders not consenting to such resolution. The consent may be in the form of counterparts, each counterpart being signed by one or more Shareholders. If the consent is in one or more counterparts, and the counterparts bear different dates, then the resolution shall take effect on the earliest date upon which persons holding a sufficient number of votes of Shares to constitute a Resolution of Shareholders have consented to the resolution by signed counterparts.

- (8) A vacancy in relation to directors occurs if a director dies or otherwise ceases to hold office prior to the expiration of his term of office.
- (9) Where the remaining directors appoint a person as director to fill a vacancy, the term shall not exceed the term that remained when the person who has ceased to be a director ceased to hold office.
- (10) The Company shall keep, or procure that its registered agent keeps, a register of directors containing—
 - (a) the names and addresses of the persons who are directors of the Company;

- (1) The business and affairs of the Company shall be managed by, or under the direction or supervision of, the directors of the Company. The directors of the Company have all the powers necessary for managing, and for directing and supervising, the business and affairs of the Company. The directors may pay all expenses incurred preliminary to and in connection with the incorporation of the Company and may exercise all such powers of the Company as are not by the Regulations or by the Memorandum or these Articles required to be exercised by the Shareholders.
- (2) Each director shall exercise his powers for a proper purpose and shall not act or agree to the Company acting in a manner that contravenes the Memorandum, these Articles or the Regulations. Each director, in exercising his powers or performing his duties, shall act honestly and in good faith in what the director believes to be the best interests of the Company.
- (3) If the Company is the wholly owned subsidiary of a holding company, a director of the Company may, when exercising powers or performing duties as a director, act in a manner which he believes is in the best interests of the holding company even though it may not be in the best interests of the Company.
- (4) Any director which is a body corporate may appoint any individual as its duly authorised representative for the purpose of representing it at meetings of the directors, with respect to the signing of consents or otherwise.
- (5) The directors may by Resolution of Directors exercise all the powers of the Company to incur indebtedness, liabilities or obligations and to guarantee and/or secure indebtedness, liabilities or obligations whether of the Company or of any third party.
- (6) All cheques, promissory notes, drafts, bills of exchange and other negotiable instruments and all receipts for moneys paid to the Company shall be signed, drawn, accepted, endorsed or otherwise executed, as the case may be, in such manner as shall from time to time be determined by Resolution of Directors.

- (7) For the purposes of Regulation 180 (Disposition of assets), the directors may by Resolution of Directors determine that any sale, transfer, lease, exchange or other disposition is in the usual or regular course of the business carried on by the Company and such determination is, in the absence of fraud, conclusive.

16. Proceedings of Directors

- (1) Any one director of the Company may call a meeting of the directors by sending a written notice to each other director.
- (2) The directors of the Company or any committee thereof may meet at such times and in such manner and places within or outside the Zone as the directors may determine to be necessary or desirable.
- (3) A director is deemed to be present at a meeting of directors if he participates by telephone or other electronic means and all directors participating in the meeting are able to hear each other.
- (4) A director shall be given not less than three days' notice of meetings of directors, but a meeting of directors held without three days' notice having been given to all directors shall be valid if all the directors entitled to vote at the meeting who do not attend waive notice of the meeting, and for this purpose the presence of a director at a meeting shall constitute waiver by that director unless his presence at the meeting is to protest the lack of notice given in respect of such meeting. The inadvertent failure to give notice of a meeting to a director, or the fact that a director has not received the notice, does not invalidate the meeting.
- (5) A director may by a written instrument appoint an alternate who need not be a director and the alternate shall be entitled to attend meetings in the absence of the director who appointed him and to vote or consent in place of the director until the appointment lapses or is terminated.
- (6) A meeting of directors is duly constituted for all purposes if at the commencement of the meeting there are present in person or by alternate not less than 50% of the total number of directors.
- (7) If the Company has only one director the provisions herein contained for meetings of directors do not apply and such sole director has full power to represent and act for the Company in all matters as are not by the Regulations, the Memorandum or these Articles required to be exercised by the Shareholders. In lieu of minutes of a meeting the sole director shall record in writing and sign a note or memorandum of all matters requiring a Resolution of Directors. Such a note or memorandum constitutes sufficient evidence of such resolution for all purposes.
- (8) At meetings of directors at which the Chairman is present, he shall preside as chairman of the meeting. If there is no Chairman or if the Chairman is not present, the directors present shall choose one of their number to be chairman of the meeting.
- (9) An action that may be taken by the directors or a committee of directors at a meeting may also be taken by a Resolution of Directors or a resolution of a committee of directors consented to in writing by a majority in excess of 50% (or, if a higher majority is required by the Memorandum or Articles, such higher majority) of directors or members of the committee, as the case may be, without the need for any notice. The consent may be in the form of counterparts each counterpart being signed by one or more directors. If the consent is in one or more counterparts, and the counterparts bear different dates, then the resolution shall take effect on the date upon which the last director has consented to the resolution by signed counterparts.

17. Committees

- (1) The directors may, by Resolution of Directors, designate one or more committees, each consisting of one or more directors, and delegate one or more of their powers to the committee.
- (2) The directors have no power to delegate to a committee of directors any of the following powers—
 - (a) to amend the Memorandum or these Articles;
 - (b) to designate committees of directors;
 - (c) to delegate powers to a committee of directors;
 - (d) to appoint directors;
 - (e) to appoint an agent;
 - (f) to approve a plan of merger, consolidation or arrangement; or
 - (g) to make a declaration of solvency or to approve a liquidation plan.
- (3) Subsections (2)(b) and (2)(c) do not prevent a committee of directors, where authorised by the Resolution of Directors appointing such committee or by a subsequent Resolution of Directors, from appointing a sub-committee and delegating powers exercisable by the committee to the sub-committee.
- (4) The meetings and proceedings of each committee of directors consisting of two or more directors shall be governed mutatis mutandis by the provisions of these Articles regulating the proceedings of directors so far as the same are not superseded by any provisions in the Resolution of Directors establishing the committee.
- (5) Where the directors delegate their powers to a committee of directors they remain responsible for the exercise of those powers by the committee, unless they believed on reasonable grounds at all times before the exercise of the power that the committee would exercise the power in conformity with the duties imposed on directors of the Company under the Regulations.

18. Officers and Agents

- (1) The Company may by Resolution of Directors appoint officers of the Company at such times as may be considered necessary or expedient. Such officers may consist of a chairman of the board of directors (the “Chairman”), a president and one or more vice presidents, secretaries and treasurers and such other officers as may from time to time be considered necessary or expedient. Any number of offices may be held by the same person.
- (2) The officers shall perform such duties as are prescribed at the time of their appointment subject to any modification in such duties as may be prescribed thereafter by Resolution of Directors. In the absence of any specific prescription of duties it shall be the responsibility of the Chairman to preside at meetings of directors and Shareholders, the president to manage the day to day affairs of the Company, the vice presidents to act in order of seniority in the absence of the president but otherwise to perform such duties as may be delegated to them by the president, the secretaries to maintain the register of members, minute books and records (other than financial records) of the Company and to ensure compliance with all procedural requirements imposed on the Company by applicable law, and the treasurer to be responsible for the financial affairs of the Company.

- (3) The emoluments of all officers shall be fixed by Resolution of Directors.
- (4) The officers of the Company shall hold office until their successors are duly appointed, but any officer elected or appointed by the directors may be removed at any time, with or without cause, by Resolution of Directors. Any vacancy occurring in any office of the Company may be filled by Resolution of Directors.

19. Conflict of Interests

- (1) A director of the Company shall, forthwith after becoming aware of the fact that he is interested in a transaction entered into or to be entered into by the Company, disclose the interest to all other directors of the Company.
- (2) For the purposes of subsection (1), a disclosure to all other directors to the effect that a director is a member, director or officer of another named entity or has a fiduciary relationship with respect to the entity or a named individual and is to be regarded as interested in any transaction which may, after the date of the entry or disclosure, be entered into with that entity or individual, is a sufficient disclosure of interest in relation to that transaction.
- (3) A director of the Company who is interested in a transaction entered into or to be entered into by the Company may—
 - (a) vote on a matter relating to the transaction;
 - (b) attend a meeting of directors at which a matter relating to the transaction arises and be included among the directors present at the meeting for the purposes of a quorum; and
 - (c) sign a document on behalf of the Company, or do any other thing in his capacity as a director, that relates to the transaction,

- (2) The indemnity in subsection (1) only applies if the person acted honestly and in good faith with a view to the best interests of the Company and, in the case of criminal proceedings, the person had no reasonable cause to believe that their conduct was unlawful.

- (3) The decision of the directors as to whether the person acted honestly and in good faith and with a view to the best interests of the Company and as to whether the person had no reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful is, in the absence of fraud, sufficient for the purposes of these Articles, unless a question of law is involved.
- (4) The termination of any proceedings by any judgment, order, settlement, conviction or voluntary dismissal does not, by itself, create a presumption that the person did not act honestly and in good faith and with a view to the best interests of the Company or that the person had reasonable cause to believe that his conduct was unlawful.
- (5) The Company may purchase and maintain insurance in relation to any person who is or was a director, officer or liquidator of the Company, or who at the request of the Company is or was serving as a director, officer or liquidator of, or in any other capacity is or was acting for, another company or a partnership, joint venture, trust or other enterprise, against any liability asserted against the person and incurred by the person in that capacity, whether or not the Company has or would have had the power to indemnify the person against the liability as provided in the Articles.
